

CITY OF BALTIMORE
NOTICE OF A PUBLIC HEARING AND RELEASE OF A DRAFT SECTION 108 LOAN
APPLICATION FOR THE REDEVELOPMENT AND EXPANSION OF THE CHICK
WEBB RECREATION CENTER

The City of Baltimore through its Department of Housing and Community Development (DHCD) will release, for public review and comment, a draft Section 108 Loan Application Proposal in support of the redevelopment and expansion of the Chick Webb Recreation Center located at 1401 East Monument Street. The draft 108 application will be available Monday February 14, 2022 at the DHCD website <https://dhcd.baltimorecity.gov/>. The draft loan application describes the project, use of funds, and proposed repayment sources and terms. The overall project is projected to cost $19,660,000 of which $12,240,000 would be paid with funds from the proposed Section 108 loan. Following a thirty-day public comment period, the draft Section 108 Loan Application Proposal will be submitted to the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD). The submitted draft will include a summary of comments received, and actions taken based on the comments.

DHCD and the Department of Recreation and Parks will hold an on-line public hearing to provide citizens the opportunity to discuss and comment on the Chick Webb redevelopment project and the draft 108 application. The hearing will be held on Thursday March 3, 2022 from 6:00-8:00pm EST. To join the meeting log into the below Zoom address. This link will also be available at the DHCD website, along with the draft application.
